for the 2013 SUMMER WORKSHOP

DATES: 6/24/13 - 6/29/13 and 7/1/13 - 7/5/13,

No camp 7/4 • MON-FRI 9pm - 1pm,

Broadway Day: Saturday, June 29

This is your opportunity to get ahead of the competition by mastering the (acting, singing, and dancing) skills needed to be a triple threat performer and ace your audition! Students will work one-on-one with The Lion King's very own Arbender J. Robinson, seasoned Broadway professionals, and award winning writers. Mastering The Audition is a comprehensive workshop that teaches young aspiring actors to exude the confidence and skills needed to succeed on center stage.

Jamie Petrone
Founding executive director. Currently the subject of a documentary entitled Re-Walk Me, A Woman's Journey to Walk Again produced by I Ain't Playin Films.

We are celebrating our seventh season with tickets to Newsies

And again, like last year we are planning on having participants experience an audition with a New York City casting director! We will also be taking part in a Broad- way Classroom where participants will learn an actual number from the show with cast members of Newsies! Plus we will always surprise you with amazing guest artists!!

The only way to be truly prepared is to invest the time in your craft and practice, practice, practice!!
